WHO IS MY NEIGHBOUR?

Fr. Patrick Coldricks, SJ

Dear Lord Jesus, I still have the same question that lawyer who asked about his neighbor, and would also like to justify myself, in order to see my righteous self in the eyes of human beings. I now realize after your teaching, that I need to be more sensitive and patient to those around me, especially when I lose my patience with them. I realize, I need to talk to you all the more often, so that you can give me the Holy Spirit you promised us, that will open up our eyes, and remove the blindness from our hearts, so that we understand the suffering of those who are going through some trauma or hurt in their lives, but do not show it, but in some way or the other reveal their hurt, frustration and sorrows, and so make it very difficult for us to understand them, which in turn really angers and frustrates us, and so attracts all the negative and hurts spirits to dwell in us, which eventually boils over to others. My prayer to you Lord Jesus today, is to be aware of the damage we can do to our neighbors and to all who are hurt in his world. Give me your promised Holy Spirit, to be more compassionate, patient, kind and understanding, so that I can allow you to work in and through me, to help you build a happier world, and to live in deep sincere gratitude to you for helping me live a life of Peace, Gratitude and Happiness for the remaining days of my life. Amen.
