WEEKLY REFLECTION

Only 7 more days until Pope Francis will be with us on this land. The whole world is watching! In today's readings Abraham welcomes the Lord with generosity. Martha and Mary welcome Jesus with attentiveness. Can they help us welcome Pope Francis?

On our behalf he will apologize to the Indigenous peoples for the deep hurt the Church caused them by taking away their land, their children, their language, and even their identity. Generations have suffered. You have been benefiting off the property stolen from them. Are you ready to apologize along with the Pope? Are you ready to change any negative attitudes you have been harboring against them? Are you ready to celebrate the emergence of Indigenous voices, cooperate with them, and walk side by side with them into a new and just future? The Pope's visit is not something for us to observe. It is something intended to convert us.

Robert Foliot, SJ
