WEEKLY REFLECTION

Today is the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. This coming Tuesday we will have the feastday of St. Anne and St. Joachim, parents of Mary and grandparents of Jesus. St. Anne is a favourite saint of our Indigenous sisters and brothers across this country. Each July large numbers from this country and from the United States assemble for a week at Lac Ste. Anne, north west of Edmonton. This July 25th Pope Francis will join them, accompanying them in their sorrows and in their joys.

Our seniors have acquired much wisdom during the ups and downs of their lives, the sorrows and the joys. Their most recent cross has been due to COVID-19 restrictions. But they have known the great joy of bringing new life into the world, of mentoring grandchildren, nieces and nephews. They have come to know deep down of God's abiding presence. They understand that ancient Irish hymn, 'Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ behind me, Christ above me,' leading them onwards in their lifelong pilgrimage.
