WEEKLY REFLECTION

On 01 November 1950.

The Venerable Bishop of Rome, Pius XII issued a most solemn statement - a DOGMA - expressing the faith of Roman Catholics regarding the life of the Virgin Mother of Our Lord, Jesus Christ. Therein it is stated that, after her earthly years ended Mary was taken up body and soul into life in glory with God. Translating literally from the language of the Germans we get a good sense of this; by calling it Mary's 'HEAVEN TRIP'.

This may be understood as an example of the fulfilment of prayer-wishes offered at Mass as we celebrate the 'heaven trip' (or Ascension) of Our Lord Jesus Christ: "Where He has gone, we hope to follow". And the Assumption of our Blessed Mother is not wholly unique in that regard; for the history of the Catholic Church contains examples of many other persons who, after the end of their days on this earth have been proclaimed to be sharing in heavenly glory in God with God's holy mother. Especially in the rites of beatification and canonization does the divinely-guided church assert this to be so; come 04 September 2022 we can witness the latest example of it when His Holiness, Pope Francis formally declares that his own predecessor as Bishop of Rome, Pope John Paul I is already in heaven among the blessed with God. Inspired by such confidence we fly, so to speak, to the benefit offered by their intercession and the example of their holy lives; where they have gone, we hope to follow ' Lovingly we place out lot in the hands of the Most Glorious Virgin Mary and all the saints. Blessed(-to-be) Pope John Paul I, pray for us.
