WEEKLY REFLECTION

We have lots, while some have none!

Today, Sept. 25th is World Day of Migrants and Refugees. This coming Friday, Sept. 30th is Orange Shirt Day (National Day of Truth and Reconciliation). We have a home, maybe a big home, a happy home, while more and more people are homeless, lonely, forgotten. We have our children right with us, while Indigenous families had their children taken away, their culture, their language, their spirituality and even their identity taken away from them.

In today's Gospel, the rich man while he was feasting sumptuously every day just never noticed Lazarus starving and covered with sores lying at his very own gate. It has been only 7 weeks since Pope Francis in all his pain came to Canada to remind us of what many of us had never noticed and continue even now to ignore – the pain and hurt of our Indigenous brothers and sisters. Have we already forgotten Pope Francis' commitment that we the Church would walk with the Indigenous People on a path to true reconciliation and justice? Did the Pope soften my heart and fill it with compassion?

On October 2nd a collection will be taken up for Healing and Reconciliation projects. Does the Lazarus of today, do refugees, do hurting Indigenous People have any place in my heart? O Lord, melt my icy heart!

Robert Foliot, SJ
