MINISTRY SERVED BY JESUITS

Reverends Patrick Coldricks, Wayne Bolton, Stephen LeBlanc, Robert Foliot & Michael Knox.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Jesus looked out at our world and said, "They are like sheep without a shepherd. They are harassed, confused and sometimes lost." Today is Father's Day. Fathers often find themselves harassed. At work, they are pressured from all sides. If they are police, guards, soldiers, even just business men, they are expected to be tough and put up with 'no nonsense.' But when they come home they are immediately expected to switch hats. They are expected to be gentle and kind with children, hug and be patient, change diapers, wipe away tears, and to also be understanding with their wives who have been stressed all day by those same children.

Jesus says, "Pray for fathers." They have a challenging role to play - to provide, to guide and to be a role model. Prayer though, is not enough. Jesus invites us to be supportive, to be 'stand-ins,' to be 'big brothers.'

Let's pray the prayer of Jesus, "Our Father who art in heaven..." for those called to be fathers in our society. And today let's honour and thank them.

Fr. Robert Foliot, SJ
Resident Jesuit, Martyrs' Shrine
