MINISTRY SERVED BY JESUITS

Reverends Patrick Coldricks, Wayne Bolton, Stephen LeBlanc, Robert Foliot & Michael Knox.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

In today's Gospel, our Lord shares with us a parable of the sower; some seeds planted in shallow ground, others amidst thorns, but some in the rich earth that produced life. A metaphor, we know, of the human soul, and an invitation from Jesus Christ to ensure we plant ourselves deeply within the rich faith that we have been given. An invitation to ensure that our relationship with Him, within the graces of the Church, are always all the more our 'roots.'

Each of you, today, in your journey of pilgrimage to Martyrs' Shrine, have, in some way, made a commitment to this effort. Journeying with St. Jean de Brébeuf and companions to these sacred grounds, seeking grace, perhaps, in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, or in holy Mass, coming to pray for yourself, your family, or a dear friend, are all acts of great faith that deepen your roots in our Lord.

May your pilgrimage this day be blessed.

Fr. Michael Knox, SJ
Director, Martyrs' Shrine
