MINISTRY SERVED BY JESUITS

Reverends Patrick Coldricks, Wayne Bolton, Stephen LeBlanc, Robert Foliot & Michael Knox.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Today's readings tells us of the good deeds being repaid abundantly with good measure, and with the message, that no good deed done in secret goes unrewarded, and actually gets paid back in full measure. In fact, heaped up, pressed down and overflowing.

In the example of prophet Elisha, who on his journeys through Shunem, was given rest and bare creature comfort, by this kind and compassionate woman, who recognised something special about this holy man, who I'm sure felt a deep sense of gratitude towards this kind and hospitable woman. She was greatly rewarded with the unthinkable and the unexpected. Elisha likely heard her desperate and silent prayers pleading for a child, and her kindness towards him was greatly rewarded.

In the gospel, Jesus also teaches us the same in his teachings to think good thoughts, speak good words, and do good to all and even to those who harm you. (your enemies). All along we now realize that we are created, or born into this world to do good, and even to heal our broken world, in spite of our many set backs. We will always be encouraged to repay evil with good, and so help Jesus in His Mission to bring about the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.
