God Stands With Me

By Fr. Wayne Bolton, S.J.

In the book of Genesis we read how Jacob had to leave his home in disgrace. Alone in the wilderness at night he had a dream, a ladder reaching to heaven, and angels of God ascending and descending. Then God stood beside him, and promised Jacob, "Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go..." (Genesis 28:12-15.)

In our first reading today, the people say, it is the Lord our God, "He protected us along the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed." (Joshua 24:17).

Hundreds of years ago, Irish Catholics picked up on this belief that God accompanies human beings on their journeys through life; they expressed it thus: 'Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ behind me, Christ above me, everywhere I go. 'Many of us have heard this hymn sung in our home parishes, our modern version of it. And these past five weeks our Sunday gospel has been from John, chapter 6, in which Jesus speaks of the Eucharist, his physical presence in the Eucharist. Allow yourself to be awestruck, utterly amazed that Christ would do this, God's love accompanying us through life until He has us securely in His safe haven, in eternal life with the Blessed Trinity, with all the saints.

Praise and thanks to the Blessed Trinity. Amen.
